HISTORY

In 1914, Saint Augustine Church opened its own grammar school under the direction of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, who continue to serve our parish community today. In its first four years, classes were conducted in the convent. In 1918, St. Augustine School opened its doors to the excitement of children and their grateful parents. In the years 1959 to 1961, under the pastorate of Fr. Henry Smith, OSA, an addition to the school was built doubling its capacity.
